Headline Act

Otiz Cannelloni combines the illusion of magic and the wit of stand-up to produce a hybrid comic creation. With a mind more suited to testing crash helmets, his performance fluctuates between sheer genius and downright stupidity. When this man is on stage the dressing room empties, as the rest of the comics rush to watch and learn from his mistakes. "Master of Mirth and Minimalist Magic ..... Delightful."
Time Out

Comperes

Brian Damage & Krysstal
 Brian won the JONGLEURS New Act Competition in April '98 and has never looked back – that is until he met Krysstal, now he is looking constantly over his shoulder, wondering what on earth she is up to. As a musician Brian has always been a comedian, but in 1996 he decided to take comedy as a serious option!

" – as daft and charming as they are funny..." – The Stage
 "Always enjoyable... incredibly funny... His 'Buddy Holly plays Oasis' is a gem" – Chortle

Paul McCaffrey has quickly established himself as one of the most exciting new acts around. He was a star of Impractical Jokers (BBC3), has been on Russell Kane's Whistle-Stop Tour (BBC Radio 2) is a regular guest on The Matt Forde Show (talkSPORT) and was on Russell Howard's Good News (BBC3).

"Likeable, animated and fluid with a first rate sense of timing" Chortle
 "Obviously born to be a comic" Scotsman

Mary Bourke was born in Dublin during a cross fire hurricane. She lives in leafy Buckinghamshire with her comedian husband and her large collection of Betty Page memorabilia. As well as being an accomplished comedian who has performed all over the world Ms Bourke is also a respected comedy writer.

"Mary Bourke is one of the best female comics in the country" GQ
 "One of the best female stand-ups I've seen recently" The Stage
